Hangers

Spring Vibration Isolation Hangers

- Steel springs reduce vibration transmission most efficiently as performance improves with larger deflection.
- Minimum deflection is 0.75" which increases with heavier loadings.
- Spring deflection are 2-6 times better than the neoprene products.
- Hangers have neoprene cups under the springs to prevent sound transmission.
- A projecting rubber bushing prevents sound transmission if hanger rods are not perfectly centered.
- Finish is powder coated paint
