

Fastenal is ready to help you prepare, respond and recover when a flood hits your community. With 2,500+ stores in the U.S., we truly are where you are, with local people and locally stocked product to support your emergency needs. One thing that differentiates Fastenal within the industrial supply marketplace is that we own our transportation routes. With a fleet of 6,000+ big trucks and local delivery vehicles, we don't have to rely on third-party carriers during your time of need. Our many state-wide contracts offer cooperative use features providing benefits to city and county as well as state agencies.
