Bill Becker – Cost Savings Manager, Fastenal Company

Bill Becker brings 36 years of industrial supply market experience to his current role as manager of Fastenal’s cost savings programs. In addition to directing the company’s internal savings initiatives, he consults with large, multi-site customers to help them introduce value to their supply chains through strategic buyer/seller relationships, efficient materials management, and custom cost savings programs. During this interactive seminar, Bill will discuss industry best practices for vendor managed inventory, cost savings documentation, and buyer/seller collaboration, presenting actionable ideas to streamline paper and product flow to drive down the total cost of inventory ownership.
